

Al & The Clocker

Pocono

R 2 # 3 CALL ME ROO...This is an Al Stanley type of line.....looks good....# 7 NIPOTINA...also has an Al Stanley type of line...first over....you may want to consider who has the best odds at post time or use them in gimmicks.....

R 3 # 4 DARLABAR MAN...A Clocker pick...should be in the fray....

R 4 # 2 S F HAZEY..Does not quite have a 10% win % and I do not have my reference book nearby to see if that disqualifies the hoss...(I can't remember)....It is a nice looking line (Al Stanley) and I will bet it if odds are better than # 4 EVERE'S CONNECTION...also qualifies for a play (Al again)..I am looking for the best odds over 6-1...

R 6 # 1 HANKY'S HOORAY...Was a 2 move winner..looks sharp again (Stanley)

R 9 # 3 PRINCIPAL MARVIN...Showed a burst of early speed compared to last lines on program...Al Stanley likes that...

R 10 # 1 TOM'S OK LADY...Made a double parked move from the outside to the Garden Spot but could not finish it off...Pavia and the Al Stanley Line could work it out..

R 11 # 4 OPAN HEART..This beaten favorite gets the "Stallbomber" up...I like it...

R 12 # 6 SMEDSHAMMER...I like Pavia on this hoss that was claimed last race...

R 13 # 2 ART STAR...The first over mile again...Mr. Stanley likes...

R 14 # 7 MATT HERSHEY...Was outside post parked first over to lead...get's the improved start from post 7 now...(Al)

R 15 # 3 METEOR MAN... Had a sharp engine line and we can try again if we get some odds..(Al Stanley)
