

Back In The Corner With Al Stanley

Chester

R 1 # 2 SLEEP EASY..Actually I have had a hard time with uninterrupted sleep...but...this gelding got a taste of early speed last time and won't be sleeping at post time...driver switch could benefit...

R 2 # 5 ASHLEY'S PRIDE..Longshot Driver Goodell is steering an Al Stanley special...(Parked first over for at least half the race)...should get some odds here....

R 3 # 1 DAWN IZZA WITCH...Another example of an Al Stanley racing line...fails the 10% rule (my guide is in the car and I'm not pushing my left leg to get it) whether or not the 10% matters I will go with it because we may get some great odds here...

R 4 # 8 MIGHTY BABE...2nd time Tetrick...should be competitive with some decent odds for a Tetrick drive....

R 5 # 3 IMAGE BILL...Yes...this is another example of an Al Stanley racing line...even though the loss was by 20 lengths!

R 6 # 1 STYLE SEMALU....Probably going to be low odds...but if not....it's all systems go...NOTE: If the 7 HORSE with TETRICK is going off at good odds...more than the 1...I would give the 7 a closer look just based on the driver change...

R 8 # 4 POINT OF ATTACK...Al Stanley would like this one...so should you....

R 9 # 7 GANGSTA LADY...Another parked out first over for at least a half mile...Thanks to Mr. Stanley if it comes in (hopefully long)

R 10 # 5 CHICK N TELL...Is the obvious Al Stanley line but will not be a bet for me with low odds...the 1 HORSE..CHOSEN VOYAGEUR will be a contender in this class...perhaps a 1-5 exacta box or other gimmicks involving the 1 & 5.....

R 11 # 6 CYCLONE CULLY N...Pierce is up and whacking with the whip.....off a claim with same owner/trainer now...normally an Al Stanley play at 6-1 or more...if has excuse or is not a winner...follow these types of horses and play if the correct odds pop up withing the next 5 starts...

R 12 # 6 LETS GET SERIOUS N..Was a jog-burger winner in last at under even odds...if he goes longer I might consider...(still sharp)...The 1 horse..STAND GUARD has shown early speed from the outside and now moves inside....if STAND GUARD goes off at 5-1 or more...that's my play as well as Al's....

R 13 # 1 JK GETUPNGO...Drops a ton...and adds Tetrick.. (my play..not Als)

Woodbine..

R 1 # 4 STRIKING RICH...1st time hopped is the key...(Stanley's)

R 3 # 5 THE VATICAN...This choice is by The Clocker...

R 4 # 5 FLAMING PRINCE...Despite 1 win out of 49 starts in 09 & 08...I would consider this leaver if 12-1 or more....

R 5 # 7 INDIANA HAL...Hall of Famer William O'Donnell still steers the trotters...this one looks like a stretch flyer and might get overlooked (Clocker pick)

R 6 # 5 SHIFTIN GEARTOGEAR..Was definatley shifting the whole mile...looks sharp!

R 7 # 6 NO PAIN NO GAIN...An AI Stanley play of two moves with 2 or more positions involved...

R 9 # 3 HERESTOPATRICK...The early move is an AI Stanley play...

R 10 # 5 NEED A JOB...Early move from outside..gets best post tonight...Safic no slouch here..has steered and won with this gelding...(Thanks to AI)
